BAPTISTS HOLD NATIONAL MISSION CRUSADE CONFERENCE

GREEN LAKE, Wis.—(RNS) A national World Mission Crusade conference was held at the Northern Baptist assembly grounds here, July 7 and 8.

National, state and city chairmen and co-chairmen and a few other outstanding Baptist laymen have been invited to take part in the report and planning conference. A subject of major interest will be the World Mission Crusade victory in which Northern Baptists topped a goal of $14,000,000 by subscribing $16,163,601.

The conference is designed to accomplish the following purposes: 1. To receive a full report on the Crusade; 2. To consider with denominational leaders, plans which Northern Baptists have developed tentatively so as to take full advantage of the resources and opportunities made possible through the Crusade and 3. To confer concerning what are the most important elements and emphases which should be included in the program for the next five years.

Crusade leaders said they believed the conference would be but the first in a series of conferences of lay leaders across the country, through which laymen will participate more and more in formulating the plans and policies of the denomination.

Leaders pointed out that probably the greatest by-product of the Crusade was the discovery of the vast resources of lay leadership which had been largely unknown and unused.

Tennessee Baptists Fight Separation Of Church And State

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—(BP)—Threats of a last ditch fight by Baptists against inclusion of churches in a state 2.7 per cent employment security tax law enacted last February is making top political news in Tennessee and has already gained a concession from Gov. Jim McCord.

Similar To Social Security

The tax is a pay roll levy, paid by employers, and is similar to the Federal Social Security laws from which churches and other religious organizations are exempt. In that the Tennessee tax is paid wholly by the employers, it becomes a direct tax upon the churches.

Opening gun in the fight was fired a month ago in Memphis when the Community Chest and Baptist Memorial Hospital there threatened to make a court test of the new law. Recent developments came from Baptist ranks in Nashville, and in rapid-fire order included:

1. A letter from Dr. Charles W. Pope, executive secretary of the Tennessee Baptist Convention, to the 1,432 pastors of the state's 2,396 Baptist churches, asking them to preach on separation of church and state, opposing the tax.

2. A petitionary letter from the presidents of four Tennessee Baptist colleges, asking Governor McCord to

Dr. P. I. Lipsey, Sr., dean of Mississippi Baptist ministers who passed his 82nd birthday July 5 died July 16 at the Baptist Hospital.

The distinguished and beloved preacher, teacher, and editor, who during his lifetime had preached in everyone of the 82 counties of the state and in most of the churches, had been in failing health for the last several months. A few months ago he spent some-time in the Baptist Hospital and July 6 was again brought to the hospital.

Interment In Clinton

The final rites were conducted from the Clinton Baptist Church with Dr. Nolan M. Kennedy, pastor of the church officiating, assisted by Dr. J. W. Provine on July 17.

Active pallbearers were: Howard Morris, Bowen Morris, Clarence Morris, Robert Gandy, O. H. Purser, Houston Shores, F. H. Purser and Purser Hewitt.

Honorary pallbearers were: Dr. J. W. Provine, D. Q. Byrd, Walter Landrum, Dr. M. Latimer, A. K. Godbold, M. P. L. Berry, Dr. W. A. Hewitt, Dr. D. M. Nelson, Prof. J. R. Hitt, Dr. H. E. Speill, O. R. Johnson, D. C. Simmons and R. Q. Braswell.

Interment was in the Clinton cemetery.

Platus Iberus Lipsey was born at Independence, above Senatobia, in Tate county, July 5, 1865, the son of John Washington Lipsey and Mrs. Malinda Frances Maxville Lipsey. He was a student in the elementary schools of that section of the state, and then attended Union University at Jackson, Tennessee, until 1882 when he was 17 years of age.

He transferred then to the University of Mississippi where he was graduated in 1886 with the Bachelor of Arts degree. He obtained his Master of Theology degree at the Southern Baptist Seminary in Louisville, Ky., in 1889 Mississippi College conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1906.

He was married on November 21, 1889 to Julia Toy Johnson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Lipscomb Johnson of the Ole Miss faculty. His ordination to the ministry also took place in this year of his graduation from the Seminary.

He was successively pastor at Columbus, Indiana, Vicksburg, Miss., Murfreesboro, Tenn., Adairville, Ky., then back to Mississippi at the First Baptist Church, Greenwood, and then to Clinton in 1900 where he served as pastor until 1912. In 1912-

956 U. S. Baptists Register For Baptist World Congress

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(BP)—Approximately 4,200 Baptists, including about 1,000 from the United States, will attend sessions of the Baptist World Congress opening at Copenhagen, Denmark, July 29.

Miss Jessie Ford, secretary of Dr. W. O. Lewis, general secretary of the Baptist World Alliance, said that 956 members of Baptist churches in the United States have been certified as messengers. These are the only registrations handled through the Washington office, those of all other nationalities have been directed to London.

The estimate of 4,200 came from Dr. Lewis, who is now in London making last minute preparations for the world meeting.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION SET

DES MOINES, Iowa (RNS)—More than 7,000 Sunday School teachers, representing the major Protestant denominations of the United States and Canada, are expected to attend the International Sunday School Convention of the International Council of Religious Education here July 23-27.

It will be the first convention of its kind sponsored by the Council since 1938.

The convention will hear more than a score of the nation's prominent church leaders including Har-

13 he was also professor of Bible at Mississippi College.

Was Editor 30 Years

In 1912 Dr. Lipsey assumed the editorship of the Baptist Record, and for nearly 30 years thereafter he was the distinguished editor of this weekly paper with offices in Jackson.

In November 1946 Dr. Lipsey was in New Orleans for the dedication of Lipsey Hall, named in his honor as a new building of the expanding New Orleans Seminary. He was the first to suggest a Baptist seminary in the Crescent City, and was president of board of trustees of what was formerly the Baptist Bible Institute and later the New Orleans Baptist Seminary.

Held Many Offices

A list of the offices held and the duties discharged by this outstanding member of his denomination would be difficult to compile. Among them were: One of the founders of the New Orleans Baptist Hospital; one of the founders and president of the board of trustees of the Mississippi Baptist Hospital in Jackson; president of the Mississippi Baptist Convention for two terms and of the Convention Board for several terms; member of the board of trustees of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky., member of the Baptist Education Commission of Mississippi, member of the Board of Trustees of the Mississippi Baptist Orphanage, and numerous others.

He made two trips to Europe during his lifetime both in the interest of denominational work. On one of the trips, in 1923, he was a representative of the Southern Baptist Convention at the Baptist World Alliance which met that year in Stockholm, Sweden.

Dr. Lipsey retired as editor of the Baptist Record in December, 1941, but continued quite active in preaching, teaching, and writing. His books include "Tests of Faith" and "Revelation."

He had made his home in Clinton for many years, and had taken an active part in the community life there both when serving as pastor and in later years. He was at one time a director of the bank there.

Survivors are: His wife, by a second marriage, Mrs. Florence Bower Morris Lipsey, Clinton, one daughter Mrs. X. O. Steele, Magee; four sons, John J. Lipsey, Colorado Springs, Crawford Lipsey, superintendent of schools at Brookhaven, Dr. James Lipsey, Brookhaven; one sister, Mrs. Alva Mason, Durant, Okla.; and ten grandchildren.

ligion in the prevention and cure of illness.

The daily schedule of the interns includes a two-hour seminar with professors and department heads of the Bowman Gray School of Medicine at which various problems are discussed, another two hours taken up with visiting patients, assigned reading on psychology, and assisting with hospital administrative work and records.

Although the clinical training program was started some years ago in the North this is reported to be the first time it has been tried in the South.

Helps Minister To Understand Problems

Dr. Wayne E. Oates, director of the seminary's program, says, "We have realized the important relation of the pastoral work to psychiatry, and the close relationship between the teaching of Christianity and sociology, or social ethics. We want to train our men to keep abreast of new developments, to equip the minister with such insights and skills that he may not be 'ashamed of the Gospel' in the presence of people of other professions also dedicated to the service of mankind. Particularly it is aimed to help the minister in the process of understanding of cooperative inquiry into human problems, and of combining of resources with sincere, devoted men and women of science."

The Rev. Rickard K. Young, associate director of the Department of Religion at the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, and chaplain of the hospital, who is assisting with the program, said, "We recognize that 40 per cent of all illness primarily is emotional. We particularly are stressing psychiatry and psychology in this training so that the minister will know what problems he can help solve and further be able to know when mental treatment is needed, so that he can get the individual in the hands of a competent psychiatrist."

Avery, Massachusetts manufacturer and donor of the Parshad Youth Scholarships; and Dr. Mordecai Johnson, president of Howard University, Washington, D. C.

"A Call to Action" is the theme of the convention. The International Council has issued a statement warning that churches today "face a chaotic and confused world bent upon self-destruction," and assailing "rising social and economic tensions, racial antagonisms and a loss of national morale."

"In small communities and large cities, juvenile delinquency, broken homes, sex immorality, alcoholism, and an amazing indifference to political morality alarms us all," the statement declared.

In the religious field, the Council said "serious persons" are dismayed by the widespread ignorance of the Bible and warned that the "protestant evangelical forces must mobilize themselves for effective Christian teaching."

"Impelled by a new evangelistic zeal, we must rally and mobilize our forces in a great united effort to arouse all our people to a deeper concern for the moral and spiritual needs of persons. We must chart new directions. We must lift our hearts and minds and souls toward greater achievement for Christ and His Church."

Forty denominations, 34 state councils, six provincial councils, and more than 500 city and county councils will participate in the convention which will be held in Des

This Department is not supporting any particular man for any office. We are not dealing in partisan politics. It is our purpose to lead in the fight against lawlessness, especially against beverage alcohol and to promote civic righteousness and better government. Our fight, therefore, is for a cause and not for a man or men. The issue in this coming election is the liquor question, and we are urging Christian people to support men who will strengthen and enforce our liquor laws and refuse to vote for any man who would favor legalizing whiskey in any manner.

It was a joy to worship with Dr. A. A. Kitchings and the saints at Bolton on Wednesday night, July 9. Our work was presented to the congregation and the response was gratifying.

George County Rally

On Thursday night, July 10, it was our privilege to present the work of the Christian Citizens' League to a mass meeting at the Baptist Church in Lucedale. Steps were taken to organize a Christian Citizens' League in the county. We also enjoyed preaching to the saints at Lucedale on Sunday night, July 13.

Jasper County Rally

One of the best and most effective rallies we have had in the interest of the Christian Citizens' Leagues was held in the Bay Springs court house Friday night, July 11. The atmosphere here was electric. The liquor crowd was jittery. Rumors of all kinds had been spread as to what was going to take place at the rally. insurance provisions.

Aimed At

Denominational headquarters

The law's pointed inclusion of churches and welfare agencies apparently was aimed at the large denominational headquarters offices located in Nashville, namely the Presbyterian Foreign Mission Board, the Methodist Publishing House, and the Baptist Sunday School Board. Also liable are state denominational offices, church schools and orphanages, and all large churches with a paid staff of eight or more lay employees. An early ruling of the security tax commissioner exempted ordained ministers and choir directors.

In his letter to ministers, Dr. Pope declared:

"The law is a clear and shocking violation of the principle of the separation of church and state. If the government can tax a church for unemployment funds it can tax it for any purpose it desires. If it can tax one group of churches, it can tax all churches."

A Great Man Fallen In Israel

"Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen today in Israel?" Our hearts were stirred as we listened to Dr. J. W. Provine on the occasion of the funeral of the beloved and lamented Dr. Plautus I. Lipsey, July 17.

And as we thought of an appropriate tribute to this prince of the Lord it seemed to us that this friend of long-standing was the one best fitted to make the tribute. We are indebted to Dr. Nolan M. Kennedy and his office workers of the Clinton Church, for planning for and transcribing Dr. Provine's message, and to Dr. Provine for getting it ready for the printer.

We shall miss the occasional articles which Dr. Lipsey sent to the Baptist Record during our term of service. And we shall miss his visits to headquarters. His very presence brought sunshine though the day might be cloudy.

Dr. Lipsey's preaching and his writings seemed to call us for a closer walk with God. The Scriptures do not unfold to us without study, and the Holy Spirit cannot speak to us if we ignore Him day by day.

With the Psalmist, family, friends, and Mississippi Baptists may say, "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."

May we who are Christians learn more of faith, and those who do not know the Saviour seek Him, until you find Him. He is not far away, and He wants to come into your heart.—Elizabeth Draughon.

Dr. J. W. Provine's Message At Dr. P. I. Lipsey's Funeral

I know that I have your sympathy and if my emotions should cause the reins to slip from my hands I'll pick them up again. This is an experience that wrenches our souls. You will pardon me if I speak a bit personally about our relationship and a bit later I shall have a word to say about the work of Dr. Lipsey. Our paths first crossed on the campus of the University of Mississippi, 62 years ago. He was a senior and I a despised sophomore. He graduated with the class of '86 with the honors of this great class. Plautus Lipsey was regarded at the University of Mississippi as the brainiest man on the campus. After graduation, he went on his way, first through the Louisville Seminary and served faithfully various churches; and after some years I pursued the same course—graduated and did my post graduate work, and our paths converged again in 1900 in the town of Clinton. For these 47 years he and I have lock-stepped in our fields of work—he for 12 years as pastor of the church here, and for 30 years, Editor of the Baptist Record; I doing the best I could with the work assigned me at the college. That fellowship lasted all through almost a half century and grew more tender and more sympathetic and we grew more helpful to each other. Did we always agree? Not at all! But each had the good judgment when one thought he detected an error in plans or suggestions of the other, we sat down and talked it over together. The most helpful man that ever stood at my elbow was Plautus Lipsey.

I cannot refrain from speaking of the last time I was permitted to speak to him. I called frequently at the Lipsey home—too frequently, I thought—and Mrs. Lipsey said, "Go on in and see him. You can do him more good than the doctor." I walked in and said, "Lipsey," (he and I, in our close friendship generally discarded the prefixes to our names "Lipsey, you and I have been buddies for 62 years.")

"Yes," he said, "and we will be buddies over yonder." Then we had a prayer—such a prayer I think I have never heard. When he had finished the prayer, I grasped his hand and said, "Friend, would to God I had that gigantic faith that you have."

I do not think I will offend anybody when I say that P. I. Lipsey was the most powerful and gigantic influence in the Baptist Denomination in Mississippi during this century. There is hardly an enterprise that this denomination has ever undertaken but that he had a hand in it. When he came to this church in 1900 he drove the stakes of conservatism in the ground in Clinton and in Mississippi College and to him more than any other, is due the conservatism and stability of this church and Mississippi College. What is true of this church is true of many others. His heart was wrapped up in the welfare of this state and all other states. The child of his brain was both the New Orleans institutions—the Baptist Hospital and the Southern Seminary. On the board of these institutions he served faithfully and well during the life of these great institutions. If I am not mistaken he was one of the fathers of the Mississippi Hospital in Jackson on whose board he served. He was on the board of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, the Baptist Orphanage of Jackson, the State Convention Board, and the Education Board of our state, and in all these connections he was a constructive force of the highest order; and may I repeat, today we lay away the remains of the man who has exerted the most powerful influence this denomination has felt in this century. How fitting the Scripture you read, Brother Pastor, "I have fought the good fight," and that is what he has done. Our Father saw fit to assign to Dr. Lipsey a large and crucial responsibility in this life. How nobly has he executed his commission! His life has been full, helpful and satisfying.

I cannot close without saying this: The ideals of Christianity and honor and manhood and patriotism were transmitted to that splendid daughter and to those four noble sons who have done their part in carrying out the ideals of their great father. May God bless every one here who still is permitted to live and serve. To this noble family go our love and tenderest sympathy.

SEE HERE, AMERICA!

We ran across this article from an exchange paper, and we find it so thought-provoking that we wish to share it:

"In 1787 Gibbon completed his masterful book, 'The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire.' Below are listed his five reasons for the fall of that Empire:

"First, the rapid increase of divorce; the undermining of the dignity and sanctity of the home, which is the basis of human society.

"Second, higher and higher taxes and the spending of public monies for free bread and circuses for the populace.

"Third, the mad craze for pleasure; sports becoming every year more exciting and more brutal.

"Fourth, the building of gigantic armaments, when the real enemy was within, in the decadence of the people.

"Fifth, the decay of religion—faith fading into mere form, losing touch with life, and becoming impotent to guide the people."—Southwide Baptist Digest, selected from First Baptist Church, Dallas, Bulletin.

More Information About Mississippi Prison Conditions

BY A. R. BEASLEY, Chaplain

Within the past two months, much publicity has been given relative to the treatment of the inmates of the Mississippi State Penitentiary, particularly with reference to the 15 white prisoners who cut their Achilles tendons (heel strings) early in May of this year. They are alleged to have done this self maiming "to escape the work and long hours required of them."

The work day at the Penitentiary is no longer than the work day on any other plantation, or farm. I lived on a farm until I was 21 years of age, and I know that the work day at Parchman is no longer and the work no more difficult than it was for me while I lived on a farm. A good, honest day's work is all that is expected or required of any prisoner.

The records of individual prisoners, white and colored, show that many of them come to the Penitentiary, serve their sentences and return home without any punishment. The Sunflower county grand jury visits and makes inspection of the penitentiary twice a year. The penitentiary committee of the state legislature makes a visit to Parchman during each regular session. Relatives of prisoners are permitted to visit them each Sunday. The services of the prison physician, the dentist, the chaplains, the superintendent and the Board of Commissioners are available to all prisoners any time they may need them. Does it not stand to reason that with these safeguards, any prisoner who has a problem or complaint, would find a way to make it known to some one who could help him, or at least cause an investigation to be made?

I pledge to the people of Mississippi; the superintendent and the Board of Commissioners concurring, that if it is found that any inhuman treatment exists, it will be summarily dealt with. If our reputations as fair and honest men is not sufficient to convince the public that we will do the right thing in carrying out responsibilities, we invite church and civic groups, the press, and any reputable citizen to visit us and see for themselves.

Hattiesburg Pastor Goes To Denmark For B. W. Alliance

Rev. John E. Barnes

The Rev. John E. Barnes, Jr., now pastor of the Main St. Baptist Church of Hattiesburg, will represent his church at the Baptist World Alliance meeting, scheduled in Copenhagen, Denmark, July 29-Aug. 3.

The Mississippi minister, son of Dr. J. E. Barnes, Sr., of Mobile, Alabama, will return to fill his pulpit Sunday, Aug. 17.

Meets Every Four Years

Also planning to attend the world meeting is Dr. E. N. Patterson, former pastor of the Toulminville Baptist Church and now professor at the New Orleans Baptist Seminary.

The Baptist alliance meets every four years. Last meeting of the body was held in Atlanta, Ga., in 1939, and the group did not hold its scheduled meeting in 1943 because of the war.

Baptist churches from all over the world will be represented at the Copenhagen meeting.

Sailed July 2

Representatives from the United States left for Europe July 2 from New York aboard the Queen Elizabeth and will visit several European countries before going to the convention.

Dr. Roland Leavell, president of the New Orleans Baptist Seminary, will be director of the party of 36 United States representatives. The group will return to this country Aug. 14 after visiting France, Switzerland, Italy, Belgium, Holland, Denmark and England.

Deafened People May Now Hear Clearly

Science has now made it possible for the deafened to hear faint sounds. It is a hearing device so small that it fits in the hand and enables thousands to enjoy sermons, music, and friendly companionship. Accepted by the Council on Physical Medicine of the American Medical Association. This device does not require separate battery pack, battery wire, case or garment to bulge or weigh you down. The tone is clear and powerful. So made that you can adjust it yourself to suit your hearing as your hearing changes. The Distributors of Beltone, Dept. B-7, 200 Tower Building, Jackson, Mississippi are so proud of this achievement that they will gladly send free descriptive booklet and explain how you may get a full demonstration of this remarkable hearing device in your own home without risking a penny. Sunday School Lesson

Prepared by Bracey Campbell

Lesson for July 27:

The King of Peace. Job 25. (See especially the speech of Bildad, Job 25:2)

I. Peace Is a Creation. Creation is an attribute of God. It is He that makes peace. The world is waiting now with bated breath to see what shall be the fruit of the labors of those who are striving to bring a condition of permanent peace to this war-weary world. When, therefore, I read this statement out of the lips of Bildad, "He maketh peace in his high places," I decided to turn from the text prescribed by our lesson committee, and write a brief lesson on peace.

Peace is a creation of God. No peace worth the name will come from any other source; but when it comes from Him, the very name of it is the word most beautiful that ever was syllabled by human lips. Speak the word reverently and with due recognition of its source and author and it makes fitting sacrifice to Him, and sings into the ears of men a sweetness that no other word conveys. Hear what He says of that beautiful fruit of the lips: "I create the fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to him that is far off and to him that is near, saith the Lord; I will heal him." (Isaiah 57:19).

II. Peace Is the Object of the Quest of Man. Severally and collectively, individually and nationally, the object of man is the attainment of peace. There has not arisen a despot or a dictator in all the ages who has not declared his object in all that he did to be the securing of peace to him and his. He may have paved his path toward his object with skeletons of his slaves and of those who disputed his progress, and cemented this pavement with rivers of blood, but he claimed all that time his object to be the securing of peace. Napoleon declared in a tone of injured innocence that all he strove to do was to secure the blessings of peace to his beloved France, and Hitler in our own day, artlessly declared the same thing with reference to his efforts for the Third Reich. What have we in Russia now but the same thing? Accuse the Russians of aggressions aimed at their neighbor nations and the world, and you get the frank and sincere answer that all they want is peace under their system, and that to secure this peace they must have neighbors who sympathize with them and their ideologies, and that this sympathy must be secured at whatever cost to themselves and the world.

When you consider the individual, the same thing is found true. The desire of the heart is for peace. Our Lord recognized this desire for peace and need for it on the part of those He loved. His parting bequest to them was peace. "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto you: Not as the world giveth. And this He gave not as a mere gratuity, but in response to a need

He recognized this as their greatest need, hence, His gift of it.

III. Peace Was the Quest of Christ on Earth. Not for Himself primarily, but for a troubled, erring, harassed world. "He is our peace, who made both one, and brake down the middle wall of partition—... that He might create in Himself, of the two, one new man, making peace.... He came and preached peace to you that were far off, and peace to them that were nigh" (Eph. 2:14-17) His spotless life, His sacrificial death, His sin-conquering resurrection, His ascension, His session at God's right hand, His intercession for His own, all were and are unto this one end—Peace.

Tranquillity is not the primary element in peace, but a by-product; and yet it is always a product, when our Lord has His perfect way. The confession I make and the confession so many of His professed followers need to make, is that we do not appropriate in any soul-satisfying measure the peace He has provided us. Instead of abiding in Him for peace and its resultant tranquillity we fret and worry and take trouble about little things to the sorrow of our souls and the neglect of the greater matters with which He would have us busy ourselves.

IV. Peace Is Found Only in the Will of Christ. He is the Prince of Peace. No other source of it is to be found anywhere. It will never abide in this world except the peace-seeking heart abide in Him. The United Nations may have peaceful delegates to its counsels, but not without Him. The deliberations of the different counsels and committees of the United Nations may have peace and may bring peace to the world, but they will never do it without Him. Can they, as someone has suggested, live as good neighbors without acknowledging Him as the arbiter of peace? I should love to think so, but all history as interpreter of the word of God bids me say that peace will never come to the world till men acknowledge the source of it as Lord.

The Duggar Evangelistic party is available for revival meetings. The party is composed of Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Duggar. Mrs. Duggar is the former Elsie Sampey, daughter of the late Dr. John R. Sampey. Dr. Duggar preaches, leads singing and plays the violin. Mrs. Duggar plays an accordion, flute and mellophone. Mail should be addressed: Duggar Evangelistic Party, 1601 Second Avenue, Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

The Tucker's Crossing Baptist Church recently held a great series of services. Pastor J. D. Aycock was the preacher. Rev. Fred Williams of the Glade Baptist Church preached the closing sermon. The singing was led by R. K. Walin. There were eight additions, four being by baptism. Cottage prayer meetings were held preceding the meeting. The results are believed to be far-reaching in effect, since the spiritual fires burned brightly.

Help All Causes of Christ Through the Co-operative Program!

Miss Edwina Robinson says:

"Collective action for mutual benefit! That sums it up. Each individual participating in giving for every cause—preaching, teaching, and healing. Each cause receiving mutual benefit, proportionate support. That means each for all and all for each. 'Everyone of you . . . for this cause.'"

Our 1947 GOAL—$1,000,000 through the Co-operative Program from Mississippi Baptists!

Mississippi Baptists--Your Secretary Says: "Love Never Fails." 1 Cor. 13:8

D. A. McCALL, Executive Secretary, Phones 4-6384 and 3-2476, Baptist B building, Jackson, Mississippi. Home Phone 3581, Clinton, Mississippi.

"Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them." Jesus in Matthew 7:12.

Mississippi Baptist Continue On The March!

Growth is a law of life. God made His people to go forward. Jesus grew in wisdom and stature. Luke 2. The New Testament churches grew in number, membership, and power. Read the Acts of the Apostles. Individual Christians are commanded to grow in grace and in the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ. Read the Epistles by Peter.

For the first six months of this calendar year, January-June, inclusive, Mississippi Baptists registered one growth after another over the first six months of last year and each preceding year. During the first six months of last year we had 853 churches sending some of the Lord's money for Co-operative Program causes through this office. For the first six months of this year we have 889 churches sending some of the Lord's money for the Co-operative Program causes through this office. That is a gain of 36 churches. This is more than have ever in all Mississippi Baptists' history contributed through the Co-operative Program for a first six months period of the calendar year.

For the first six months of this year we have 1,146 churches contributing through this office for the work of Christ. For the first six months of last year we had 1,016 churches sending some of the Lord's money for some of the work of Christ through this office. That is a gain of 130 churches doing something for the first six months of this year over those for the same period last year.

Back in 1939 we had only 1,073 churches sending some of the Lord's money for any and all causes for the entire twelve months of the year. Our churches have exceeded that figure the first six months of this year. In 1939 we had 930 churches that sent something through this office for the work of Christ the first six months of the year. For the first six months of this year that record is exceeded by 216 churches.

We have gone forward in the Co-operative Program contributions the first six months of this year over the first six months of last year.

For instance, the first six months of last year we received for the Co-operative Program a total of $282,861.97, whereas, this year we have received for the first six months for the Co-operative Program a total of $329,630.47, or a gain of $46,768.50.

However, we have over 600 churches that did not contribute through the Co-operative Program for the first six months of this year. We have 400 churches that did not contribute anything through this office the first six months of this year. That means much remains to be done within the next few months. Some few hundred of our churches have the habit of waiting until the fall months to make their offerings for the work of Christ beyond the local church. This manifests a weakness we need to get at through the work of our departments, Sunday School, Training Union, Woman's Missionary Union, Brotherhood and so forth.

Even so these months will stand as being the best months in our history in the number of churches and people contributing financially for all the work of Christ--up to this date. We are now ready to make another advance.

Church and Associational leaders should see to it that every church in every association has a part in all the work of Christ through the Co-operative Program between now and October 31, the close of the Convention year.

In the first column you will notice Co-operative Program gifts by churches for the first six months of 1946. In the second column you will notice contributions through the Co-operative Program for the first six months in 1947. Each church will be able to see in this way whether it gained or lost in Co-operative Program contributions.

Sacred history written by the churches follows in figures:

Word from my friend, Dr. C. J. Tinsley of Sydney, Australia, vice-president of the Baptist World Alliance, plans to return from the Copenhagen Congress through America, and he is willing to take a few speaking or preaching engagements during the latter part of August and months of September and October while enroute across the continent from New York to San Francisco. Those who desire his services may arrange for same by addressing Dr. M. E. Dodd at Post Office Box 16, Shreveport, Louisiana.

The Veterans Administration reports it received $8,395,000 in May from veterans who had received more than the amount to which they were entitled, but that $43,000,000 overpaid through administrative errors had not been returned.

There is still a shortage of school teachers, but an average salary increase of $400 during the past year has helped the 850,000 teachers. However, 450,000 teachers still lack a college degree and 60,000 have never gone beyond high school.

The number of negroes in New York City has climbed from 327,706 in 1930 to 547,000 in 1945.

Pastor Grady Smith reports that the Leesburg church held a Vacation Bible School the week of June 30, with an enrollment of 89. An offering of $5 was made to the cooperative program. Commencement was held on Friday night with a large crowd attending. Among those who served as leaders were: Mrs. W. D. Edwards, principal; Mrs. D. T. Measells, Mrs. O. D. Bilbro, Mrs. Grady Smith, R. G. Winstead, Mrs. Ruby Joyner, Mrs. J. D. McKay, Mrs. R. G. Winstead, Mrs. L. S. Bates and Mrs. J. C. Everitt.

A beautiful painting of a Jordan river scene has been installed behind the Baptistry of the Georgetown Baptist church. This is a memorial to the memory of Miss Patty Sue Moore who met an untimely death in an accident two years ago.

The Zion Hill Baptist church in Forrest county recently held a Vacation Bible School with a record enrollment of 11, and an average attendance of 96. Miss Beatrice Walley served as principal in a most efficient way. A fine commencement was enjoyed by a large group. Pastor J. B. Stewart and 16 others took part in the school as follows:

Mrs. H. A. Gay Sr., Mrs. J. R. Gay, Mrs. R. R. Slack Jr., Mrs. E. O. Battles, Mrs. Arthur Young, Miss Frances Odom, Mrs. Wilson Averett, Mrs. Irma Odom, Miss Lorette Evans, Mrs. J. B. Stewart, Miss Pat Sellers, Miss Betty Ott, Miss Merle Buckley, Mrs. James Rowe Blakney, Miss Rosa Lee Brelan and Mrs. Clara Dunnigan.

The Vacation Bible School at Forty-First Avenue Baptist church in Meridian was a success. There were over 100 present many times, with a total registration of 150. Leaders who assisted Miss Frances Kinard, principal, were: Pastor Ray Dykes, Mrs. Dykes, Mrs. H. L. Rucker, Mrs. C. B. Smith, Mrs. Buford Drew, Miss Lanell Gay, Mrs. B. F. Birdson, Jr., Mrs. J. M. Lackey, Mrs. Frank Maher, Mrs. F. L.

Thornton, Mrs. L. H. Holt, Mrs. R. L. Pryor, Miss Emma Claire Merrill, Mrs. Fred Williams, Julia Mae Martin, Miss Nannie David, and inspirational speakers Rev. C. E. Dearman and Pastor Dykes. The offering of $15.77 was for Camp Garaywa.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

Secretary D. M. Nelson is at the University of Indiana doing work with a view to his doctor's degree.

The Baptist Bible Institute of New Orleans is four years old and has four Missionaries on the Foreign Fields.

Rev. G. W. Riley, pastor of Griffith Memorial, will be with his old college friend, Pastor W. S. Rogers, of Crystal Springs, in a meeting at Wanilla and Holly Springs on the 4th and 5th Sundays in July and the weeks following.

Miss Addie Mae Stevens, stenographer in Dr. Gunter's office, was operated on in the Baptist Hospital last Thursday. She is making a good recovery. Later Mrs. Bell, stenographer in Miss Lackey's office, is undergoing the same experience.

Our W. M. U. corresponding secretary at this writing is at Indianapolis attending the Northern Baptist Convention. The W. M. U. of Mississippi should feel highly honored that our beloved worker has been chosen to represent the women of the South at this very important meeting.

The First Baptist Church of Corinth begins a series of Evangelistic meetings on Sunday, June the 18th. The pastor, Dr. T. W. Young, will do the preaching and Jack Scholfield of Fort Scott, Kan., will lead the singing.

Rev. H. H. Webb reports a fine meeting at Prentiss, where he assisted Pastor J. B. Quinn. There were nine additions to the church and the people much revived.

Pastor C. C. Weaver writes that the Tate Street Church of Corinth, of which he is the faithful pastor, has just closed a fine meeting, with Rev. W. C. McPherson and J. P. Carter, singer, both of the Home Board Evangelistic force, conducting the meeting. There were 21 additions to the church.

Pope Favors Egypt Proposals Offered

CAIRO (RNS) — Proposals by the Egyptian government for resumption of relations between the Vatican and Egypt have been approved by the Holy See, it was learned here. Acceptance of the proposals was indicated in a letter from Msgr. Domenico Tardini, Vatican Secretary for Extraordinary Affairs, received by the Egyptian Premier and Foreign Minister.

The letter was brought from Rome by Bishop Arthur Hughes, regent of the Cairo nunciature, who declared that the establishment of Vatican-Egypt relations would be "an event of the first importance." Bishop Hughes announced that he is planning to return to Rome shortly.

REGIONAL CONFERENCE OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION TO BE HELD AUG. 26-29

The Southeastern Regional Conference of Religious Education will meet in Birmingham, Alabama, August 26-29. J. L. Pollard, Educational Director of Hunter Street Baptist Church, Birmingham, is program chairman, and James P. Morgan, Educational Director of First Church, Raleigh, North Carolina, is president.

The sessions will be held on the campus of Howard College and will be open to all educational directors, Bible teachers, field secretaries and other vocational workers. Speakers include Robert Denny, Dr. A. E. Tibbs, Dr. G. S. Dobbins, A. V. Washburn, Earl Waldup, Dr. Norman O'Neal, Mississippi College, and Dr. J. L. Corzine. All Mississippians who are interested are urged to attend.

Melvin Roberts, educational director, Calvary Church, Jackson, is a member of the Program Committee.

LAMPLIGHTERS ACROSS THE SEA is a study book for Juniors by Margaret T. Appelgarth. Some of the chapter headings indicate the interesting presentation of this book on the Bible: Handing Down the Big Little Library, The Map the Shoe Cobbler Made, Grow-Book Fished Out of Water, and Answering Giant Question Mark. The illustrations make the book interesting for grown-ups as well as children and contain a wealth of information presented in the charming style of Margaret Appelgarth. Order from the Baptist Book Store for 40 cents.

Headed by Dr. W. Edwin Richardson, Mississippian, professor of Divinity at Cumberland University, Tennessee and Miss Louise West of Kentucky, eleven college student members of the Southern Baptist Convention, including Corrine Griffin of Blue Mountain, boarded the Pan American Clipper Monsoon recently at San Francisco en route to Hawaii where a summer-long program of revival meetings are planned.

Because of the emphasis placed on the conversion of youth, the entire revival program and the establishment of numerous Baptist Vacation Bible Schools for children between the ages of 14 and 16, will be conducted by the five student-preachers and their co-ed assistants. Dr. Richardson will engage primarily in contacting and discussing Baptist mission work with the numerous Southern Baptist missionaries throughout the Hawaiian Islands. Miss Louise West, who is a grade school instructor in Owensboro, Kentucky, will act as chaperon for the group.

Miss Griffin was selected by a committee composed of one BSU secretary and four State BSU Council members to represent the Mississippi BSU. The party plans to return to the States by Clipper on August 1.

Hospital Wedding Held

Much interest has been manifested in a wedding at the Baptist Hospital recently in which Rev. J. B. Parker, the Institutional Visitation Director, performed the ceremony. The groom was injured in a car wreck as he was en route to his wedding. The bride came to the hospital and the ceremony was performed, with nurses and family members as witnesses at the happy occasion. Patients from many sections of the hospital sent their flowers to be used as decorations, and the event was happy for all who shared in it. The groom's name was Marvin Burnham, of Cullman, Ala., and Houston, Tex. The bride was Miss Marie Smith, of Cullman.

Mississippi Baptists in their hospital visitation program are touching many lives in blessing through Director Parker's ministry. This work is a part of State Missions.

Catholic Complains Polish Politicians Failed Notice Him

WARSAW (RNS)—Bernard Cardinal Griffin, Archbishop of Westminster, intends to issue a full report on religious conditions in Poland and may make "certain suggestions" to the British government, according to Catholic headquarters here.

One of the "suggestions" is expected to be based upon the lack of official recognition of the cardinal's visit by the Polish government.

Cardinal Griffin, who came to Poland at the invitation of August Cardinal Hlond, Archbishop of Warsaw, complained here, informants stated, that his visit was "completely ignored" by Polish governmental leaders. During his tour of the provinces, Catholic sources declared, some local officials attended receptions given in the cardinal's honor by the Catholic clergy, but in Warsaw no member of the government appeared.

"This left the cardinal without an opportunity of meeting the present political leaders of Poland," an informant stated, "a fact which is greatly regretted by those Catholic leaders eager for some improvement in official relations between the Catholic Church and the Polish government."

During his stay in Poland, the British churchman was said to have made some outspoken references to the present Warsaw regime, but on the whole he treated his visit as connected solely with church affairs and avoided politics. However, it is expected this forthcoming report will discuss some matters outside the limits of strictly ecclesiastical affairs.

There were 11 additions at the East Side church in Rankin county when Rev. Sam Waggener was the guest preacher. Nine of these were for baptism. The whole church was greatly helped.

In a recent Baptist Training Union revival and enlargement campaign at Laurel, Rev. D. S. Homan of Kosciusko was with Rev. Joe Aycock. The work under Rev. Aycock is progressing, and a building program is under way.

Protestant Group To Seek Federal Funds

RACINE, Wis. (RNS)—The Danish Evangelical Lutheran Church of America voted at its 70th annual convention here to seek government funds for expansion of its college facilities, if the Aiken bill is passed at the current session of Congress. Under terms of the measure, now in congressional committee, limited aid would be given by the government to assist colleges and universities where war veterans are enrolled to erect non-housing buildings, such as class rooms, laboratories, gymnasiums, etc. The synod instructed the Board of Education of Grand View College at Des Moines, Ia., to apply for the government funds if they are made available by Congress, in order to expand the physical plant of the school.

In the same resolution, the synod resolved that "we reiterate and confirm our faith in the traditional American policy of separation of church and state, and that we vigorously oppose any legislation which in any way encroaches upon this policy."

It was asserted, in discussion of the motion, that there was no conflict or inconsistency in the two-part resolution as the government aid to colleges was intended to help G. I. students and was only of a temporary or emergency nature.

The synod also recommended passage of a measure, now being considered by a House judiciary committee, to admit 100,000 displaced persons to the United States annually for the next four years.

Chapter II

- (A) By signs and types Hosea, speaking for God, charges them with the sin of idolatry, their spiritual whoredom, serving idols and forgetting God. Verses 1, 2, 5, 8.
- (B) God threatens to take all good things which had been offered to idols from them and to abandon Israel to ruin without remedy. Verses 3, 4, 6, 7, 9-13.
- (C) Promises to return to them and show mercy, restore plenty, cure from inclination to idolatry, and renew covenant. Verses 14-23.

Chapter III

- (A) Using the type or sign of the dealings of a husband with an adulterous wife, God foretells the purchase of us by the blood of His only begotten son. Israel's bad condition and God's goodness seen. Verses 1-2.
- (B) Tells of low condition of His people by their captivity, and other controversies with them. Verses 2-4.
- (C) Promise of their return to God in the latter days. Verse 5.

Chapter IV

Hosea begins to indict the people, and tries to convince them of sin, and pleads with them to repent and reform.

- (A) The grounds of God's controversy. Verses 1, 2, 6, 7, 8, 11, 12, 14, 18.
1. Vice and profaneness.
 2. Ignorance and forgetfulness of God.
 3. Worldly-mindedness of the Priests.
 4. Drunkenness and uncleanness.
 5. Divination and witchcraft.
 6. Offering sacrifice in High place.

absence to Papp to make the 17-country visit, and is paying his salary as a contribution to church relief work.

Accompanying Papp is Noel Warwick, engineer for NBC's radio recording division. Warwick, not included in the original plan for the tour, heard of the nature and purpose of the assignment, and has offered his services free of charge as engineer for the project.

Interviews with people in displaced persons camps, hospitals, child feeding centers, theological seminaries, and churches will be conducted and recorded on tape for later inclusion in fifteen-minute recorded programs. Material gathered for the series will be produced by the Joint Religious Radio Committee into documentary, interview, and dramatic programs. It is expected that over 400 United States stations will broadcast the series which will be ready in the late fall.

Countries to be visited by Papp and Warwick are England, Holland, France, Belgium, Germany, Austria, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Switzerland, Italy, Greece, Yugoslavia, Norway, Denmark, Sweden and Finland. Robert Root of the World Council of Churches will guide the recording team on its European tour.

Rev. David S. Homan of the Second church in Kosciusko was evangelist in a meeting at Riverview church in Jacksonville, Fla., recently. In a 10-day meeting there were 15 additions and above 200 pledged to tithe their incomes.

7. Whoredoms.

8. Bribery among magistrates.
- (B) He shows them the consequences of God's controversy. Verses 9, 3, 5, 7, 10, 19, 17, 4, 14.
1. God will punish.
 2. Land shall be laid waste.
 3. People cut off and honor lost.
 4. Physical comforts unsatisfying.
 5. Brought to shame.
 6. Let alone in their sins.
 7. Not reprove one another.
- (C) Gives warning to Judah not to do like Israel.

Chapter V

This chapter is like unto the IV in that God, through Hosea, calls out to Israel and Judah to look at their sin and hearken unto Him.

- (A) Priests and people called to hearken. Verses 1, 8.
- (B) Sins accused of: Verses 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 10, 11.
1. Persecution.
 2. Spiritual unfaithfulness.
 3. Pride.
 4. Apostasy from God.
 5. Tyranny of rulers, and timidity of people to submit.
- (C) They are threatened with God's displeasure for their sins. He knows all their wickedness, and makes known His wrath. They fall in their iniquity, God will forsake their portions devoured, God rebukes. They shall be oppressed, shall be as a moth in secret judgment, as a lion in public judgment.
- (D) Blamed for wrong course they took their affliction (turned to the Assyrians and King Jareb). General admonition given for our use—Acknowledge our offense and return to God. Verses 13, 15.

CHRISTIAN POLITICIANS CONVENE WORLD COUNCIL

GENEVA (RNS)—The role of Christians in political life was discussed by a group of twenty Christian politicians from thirteen countries who gathered for a five-day meeting at Bossey, near here, under sponsorship of the Study Department of the World Council of Churches.

Among those who attended was Odd Austweg, of the Norwegian parliament, who said that before the war Norwegian Lutherans had left politics in the hands of "materialists," but that during the anti-Nazi resistance many churchmen became convinced that Christianity "is not something that can be cut off from social and political life."

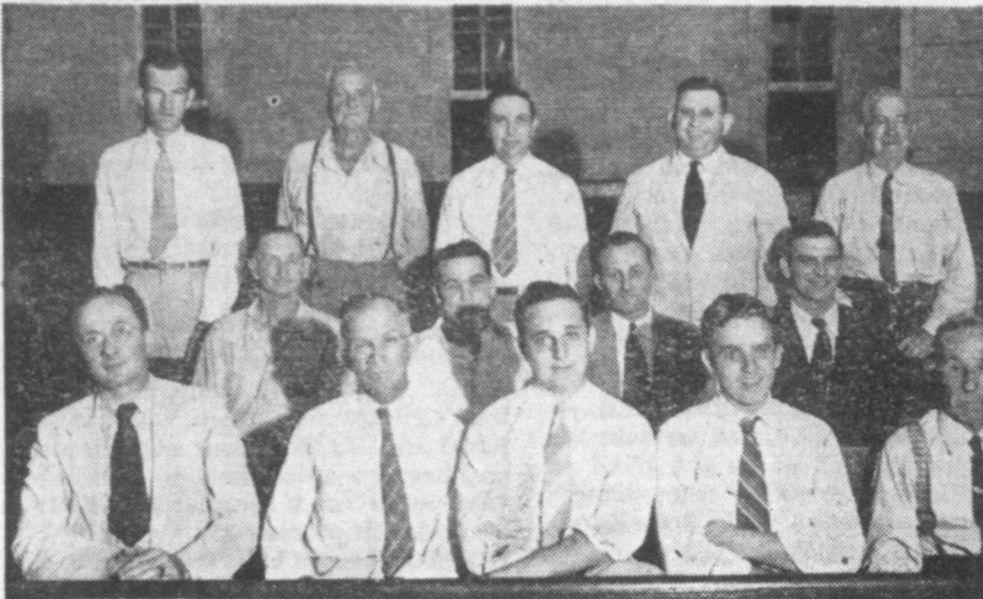

Countries represented at the meeting were: Great Britain, the United States, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Italy, Czechoslovakia, India, and New Zealand. Other delegates were expected from France and Holland, but were unable to be present. Tentative proposals were made for another meeting next year. Meanwhile, it was suggested that similar meetings of Christian politicians be held in the United States and the Orient.

It was announced that the Study Department will sponsor a conference of teachers in July and that later it will bring together a group of doctors. The purpose of these and similar meetings in the future will be to study the application of Christian principles to all vocations.

Dr. Swor Improving In Georgia Hospital

Editor's Note: The letter printed below was received on July 17 from Dr. Chester E. Swor. We are glad to pass on through the columns of the Baptist Record this letter written from his hospital bed to his many Mississippi friends.

St. Mary's Hospital,
Athens, Georgia.

Dear Friends:

As many of you already know, I suffered an automobile accident on June 22 while enroute from South Carolina to Alabama to fill an assembly engagement. Because so many hundreds are writing to send their good wishes and assurances of prayer, I shall not be able to answer all the messages except through this medium. Please accept this note as my personal reply to your cherished message.

My injuries consist of a broken left (lame) leg, an injured left knee, and a cut on the forehead. I know that the effectual, fervent prayers of hundreds of dear friends are being answered, for my recovery is proceeding so well. The doctors think that it will be about three more weeks before the cast is put on; then I shall be in the cast for about six weeks. It is my earnest hope that I shall be able to resume my schedule by late September. With all my heart I appreciate your praying that if it is God's will, I may be able to do that. Had this been an "elective course", I naturally would not have "registered" for it; yet, already I have had many rich blessings from this experience. My confident faith in Romans 8:23 and the consciousness of the sustaining strength of much prayer in my behalf have helped me from the hour of the accident to know that this time beside the still waters provides an opportunity for new spiritual discovery and strength. Hence, I am looking forward happily to these weeks abed, feeling quite sure that I shall be better equipped to do His will as a result of this interlude.

Thank you for the assurance of your prayers!

Gratefully yours,

CHESTER E. SWOR

THE JONES COUNTY CAMPAIGN

Twenty three (23) churches combined to make the Jones County Simultaneous Training Union Study Course perhaps the largest and best such program we have had in Mississippi. Missionary John W. Cook and Director Mildred Stone had left no stone unturned in making preparations for the event. Pastors and churches cooperated in a marvelous way, and all together it was a grand success. More than fifty classes were taught, several of the churches conducted a Vacation Bible School in connection with the study course with the visiting worker leading in this, three new Training Unions were organized, 27 new units of organization were organized, 46 new adult workers were enlisted, and increased goals for attendance and better work were set by all churches. We congratulate all concerned on this fine work, and special thanks go to the host of pastors and others who volunteered their services to come and lead in the plans.

"It's not what you'd do with a million
If fortune should be your lot,
But what are you doing at present
With the thirty five cents you've got?"

To bring the tithe into the "storehouse" (church treasury) not because you feel that you have to, but because you want to will bring an added joy to the Christian that he cannot otherwise know.

Miss Conner reports on Gillsburg: In a helpful study course at Gillsburg four classes were taught with a growing attendance. 57 on Monday night and 68 on Tuesday night, really better than was expecting these busy times. Brother Elton Barlow the pastor spoke in highest terms of the good teaching that was done by the visiting workers.

Bolivar Association organizes with Rev. D. I. Young Jr. as director and Mrs. Young serving as secretary. In a recent meeting six of the seven pastors in the association were present. A good program was enjoyed and plans for progress set up.

There were 69 children who told Bible stories in our District Conventions. And there were 79 Juniors who took part in the Junior Memory Work. Of these 16 Story Hour Children and 61 Juniors qualified to take part on the State Convention program December 31.

Three unions added to Calvary Tupelo Training Union, an additional Story Hour, Young People's Union and Adult Union. Congratulations.

Providence, Lebanon Association, one of our best rural churches recently had what they think is the best study course ever held in the church. The enrollment was 108. A young married couples union has recently been organized which gives the church three adult unions. The Senior Adult union (made up of the older people) was 100 per cent in all points of the eight point record system on Sunday June 29. This is a great report and we extend congratulations and heartiest best wishes.

AMERICA'S STRENGTH LIES IN HER HOMES

By Joe W. Burton

In the first landing of American troops on North African shores during the recent war, a boat filled with our soldiers was moving slowly through the narrow channel into an African port. Suddenly there appeared on a rocky promontory the figure of a woman clad in scarlet. At once all eyes on the vessel were focused upon her.

When the boat had reached the point nearest to this spectacular figure, this woman who was later revealed to be the prima donna of the country, lifted a great megaphone and sang,

"God Bless America!"

It is a prayer that has been in every heart. And now that the statesmen of the world are seeking the paths of peace it should be in the heart of every Christian American.

"Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King!

What is the strength of America? What are the hidings of our nation's power? Wherein lie the resources which guarantee the perpetuity of the American way of life?

The agriculturist might have you believe that America's strength lies in its soil. The merchant mayhap would say that a nation's power rests in its commerce. The manufacturer might falsely assert that it is in technology, in machinery, and in the skilled labor to operate plants to produce manufactured products.

The politician might falsely assume that a nation's strength is in statecraft, in astuteness and acumen respecting national policies. The educator might insist that knowledge is power and that our country's greatness is in its learning, its science, the products of the laboratory. The militarist most likely would insist that a nation is great according to its weapons.

In a discussion with Dr. Holcomb about desire to spend some weeks in Europe studying the home life of the countries, not the homes of the great nor of the high, but the simple homes of the common people, Dr. Holcomb said:

"Some years ago I was in France. I had been in Paris and there had been of course on every land evidences of immorality, but with some friends I went down into the southern part of the country and visited in a simple home. There I saw evidences of spirituality. Grace was offered at the table. Here was a France that we know little about. Here in this home was the saving element of the nation."

That is the strength of a nation! America's strength is in the character of her people, in the moral and spiritual fiber of her manhood—and these are qualities which root in the home. The hand that rocks the cradle is still greater than the one that wields the scepter. A nation's strength depends upon the quality of its home life.

Poplarville and Calhoun City Octets

While spending a few days in Calhoun and also in Poplarville we were able to organize a Ladies' Trio and a Ladies' Octet. In both places these people said that they did not realize that it was easier to get the large group than it was to organize a quartet. By having two on each voice part one helps the other. Every church in the state is asked to organize as many singing groups as possible. Start with a Ladies' Trio, using the book "Trio For Ladies' Voices" by Lillenas. Order these from the Baptist Book Store, Jackson, Miss.

TRAINING UNION ENSEMBLES

We are urging that all Training Union Ensembles work for at least one hour each week. If you did not win at the District Convention, start working for next year. If you did win at the Convention in June work regularly until our State Music Convention meets in Jackson October 3rd and 4th. It will take a real ensemble to win first place at the state convention. Do not make the mistake of resting during the summer months and starting about two weeks before the convention.

Mississippi College has a good music department headed by Prof. E. N. Esley. Write them for a catalog and study their program for teaching and you will find that it is good. Blue Mountain College also has an excellent program of Music study. It is headed by Miss Franzisha Heinrich. Write them for a catalog. They have good instructors. Mississippi Woman's College has secured the services of Miss Julia Guess formerly with Colton Junior College. They will have a good department of music and as fast as possible a good music faculty will be added. Clark Memorial College has plans for a music department that will be commensurate with the needs there. That will give us a good music department in all four of our colleges. These colleges will furnish most of our future music leaders. We do appreciate the excellent work that they are doing.

MUSIC STUDY COURSE BOOKS

We have three music study course books that are new. "Practical Music Lessons" and "Hymn Playing" sell for 40 cents each and "Programs and Materials for the Graded Choirs" sells for 50 cents. Order all three of these from the Music Department Box 530 and not from the Baptist Book store.

Our Baptist Book Store has a large supply of Music of all kinds. They will be able to take care of practically every music need that you have. If you need Hymn books place your order with them today.

Rev. J. C. Allen, pastor of the Choctaw Indian church, Mt. Zion, Carthage, Miss., writes that they have licensed Clay Gibson. He speaks in high terms of the work of the young man as a junior deacon and Sunday school superintendent for two years.

SPARKS & SPLINTERS

Dr. J. D. Ray, who recently retired as pastor of First Church, Starkville, preached at the First Methodist Church, Starkville, on July 20. Other engagements are as follows: First Church, Macon, July 27; and on August 3, Dr. Ray will preach at Calvary Church, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, for Dr. Horace G. Williams, while Dr. Williams is on vacation. Other pastors interested in securing Dr. Ray for supply may write him at his home in Starkville.

After seven and one-half years as pastor of the Lena Baptist Church, Pastor A. A. Ward leaves this good church to become pastor of the Centreville Baptist Church, Centreville, Miss. His first Sunday in the new pastorate will be August 10th.

Under the leadership of Rev. A. H. Childress, pastor, members of Dundee Church met on July 7 and organized a Baptist Training Union. Twenty-eight were present and there was much enthusiasm—Mrs. P. E. Scruggs, Secretary.

Lone Pine Church in Madison County is one of the growing churches in that association. During the revival just closed, it voted a financial budget, a program of work including Sunday school, Training Union, prayer meeting, and preaching services every Sunday. There were three professions of faith. Rev. C. O. Estes has this church behind him and it is following his leadership marvelously.

Dr. Chester M. Savage, Pastor, First Church, Liberty, announces that their summer revival will be held July 23-30, with Dr. Kenneth R. Grant doing the preaching.

L. V. Martin has been elected the director of the new Baptist Training Union at the Lula Baptist church in Coahoma county. There were 35 present for the first meeting of the BTU, and a full corps of officers will assist the director in seeking to have a successful union.

Dr. Kenneth Grant of Gurdon, Ark., was listed as the guest preacher at the Pastor Chester L. Savage. Rev. W. F. Town, Jr., of Eunice, La., was expected to lead the singing.

According to notices, Rev. T. D. Sumrall will be guest preacher at the revival in the Gloster church of which Rev. R. R. Brigance is pastor. The services were scheduled for July 27-August 3.

According to reports in the secular press, Rev. A. A. Ward of Lena has been called as pastor of the Centreville church. It is understood that he will accept.

George David Campbell and Nell Blackmon were announced as the winners of the first honors in the sword drill for the intermediates in the associational Training Union meeting held in Duck Hill. He represented the Friendship Baptist church. She is from Winona.

Both of these will enter the state contest in December.

The sick children at the Southern Baptist Hospital in New Orleans have been blessed by the ministry of "The Sunshine Workers" of Mobile, and their leader, Marian Miller. They have sent books, toys, pictures and other things to help the youngsters, according to Chaplain W. W. Hamilton.

John R. Sampey

is the word for John R. Sampey, whose vigorous, positive Christian living left its impress on agencies, forces, and men dynamic in shaping the spiritual and cultural life of his day.

Since he devoted over fifty years to the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville as student, professor of Old Testament, and president, his memoirs are a vivid personal account of the growth of that institution.

Says Dr. John L. Hill of these Memoirs, "The style is peculiarly Dr. Sampey's own—robust, colorful, forceful—reflecting the heart-power of a really great man."
